

20 DOLLARS REWARD,

FOR apprehending ISAAC, who ran away the 14th of June last. He is a large, likely, dark yellow fellow, about 30 years of age, 6 feet high, very bald for his age. Bushy head of hair, which he combs back, large whiskers, fore teeth scarcely touching each other and inclining towards his lips, which are thick, and are manifest when spoken to, sanctified countenance, a baptist preacher, on which venerable society he has certainly grossly imposed. He has a wife in the estate of Col Robert Lewis, dec. in Goochland county, at the month of the Great Bird, where I presume he is now lurking, and probably will be concealed by her. He served a regular apprenticeship to the mill wrights trade; has great use of tools, and can do tolerable cabinet work—he is an artful sensible fellow, can both read and write, and calls himself Isaac Guin. The above reward will be paid on his being delivered to me in Louisa county, near the Green Springs, or secured in jail so that I get him again. All masters or owners of vessels, or others, are forewarned from carrying him out of this state, or harboring of him in any manner whatsoever, at their peril.

IN consequence of a resolution of the General Assembly, passed at their late session, I am instructed by the Executive to make enquiry respecting the situation of all Ordnance and Military Stores, belonging to the state (not including those in the service of the United States or of this State) and make report thereof to the Governor.

In obedience to this instruction, and as the most probable mean of effecting the object contemplated by the Executive, I have thought proper thus publicly to request of such of the citizens of the commonwealth as may have any knowledge of the situation, number, quality and size or weight of any cannon or other ordnance, and muskets; cannon balls, shells or other military stores, supposed to belong to the state, and not in immediate use, to communicate a particular report thereof to me as soon as convenient.

OF VIRGINIA.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS the Uniform established by the Executive for the Militia of this Commonwealth and declared by Proclamation bearing date the first day of March last, in pursuance of the eighth section of the act of the General Assembly, passed at the last session, & further to amend the several acts concerning the Militia of this Commonwealth, & in some particular, been considered inconvenient by the people generally, and repeated applications have been presented to the Executive in behalf of the Militia in various and numerous parts of the state, representing that very few, if any, of the Militia, have as yet, provided themselves with the uniform lately established, and praying certain alterations therein: I have therefore thought fit with the advice of the Council of State, to issue this Proclamation, hereby declaring that the uniform of the Militia of this Commonwealth shall be as follows, to wit:

For the General Officers. A dark blue coat, skintlined with buff, cape, lapels and cuffs buff, yellow buttons, gold epaulettes (one on each shoulder) black cocked hat with black cockade, and black stock.

For the Artillery. A blue coat, skint lined with red, cape, lapels and cuffs red, buff buttons, buff epaulettes (one on each shoulder) buff cocked hat with buff cockade, and buff stock.

For the Light Infantry. A dark blue short coat with buff lapels, cape and cuffs white, white lining and buff buttons, buff epaulettes, buff cocked hat with buff cockade, and buff stock.

For the Grenadiers. A dark blue coat, cape, lapels and cuffs white, white lining and buff buttons, buff epaulettes, buff cocked hat with buff cockade, and buff stock.

For the Riflemen. A linen hunting shirt of purple color, with buff epaulettes, buff cocked hat with buff cockade, and buff stock.

For the main body of the Militia. A blue hunting shirt trimmed with buff, buff epaulettes and buff buttons, buff cocked hat with buff cockade, and buff stock.

For the Cavalry. A short dark blue coat, with buff buttons, buff lining, buff lapels, buff cuffs and buff epaulettes, buff cocked hat with buff cockade, and buff stock.

For the Officers of the Militia, of the Light Infantry, Grenadiers, Riflemen, and Cavalry, to be distinguished by epaulettes of silver, the officers of the Artillery to be distinguished by epaulettes of gold. The field officers to wear two epaulettes, the captains one on the right and the subalterns one on the left shoulder. All officers to wear side arms and boots. Provided however, that where any troop of cavalry, company of artillery, grenadiers, light infantry, riflemen, or of the main body of the militia, shall have provided themselves with an uniform different from that herein prescribed, they are respectively permitted to wear the same for three years from and after the date of this Proclamation.

Given under my hand as Governor, with the Seal of the Commonwealth annexed, at Richmond, this 14th day of June, 1806.

(Signed) Wm. H. CABELL.

The celebrated high blooded English Horse.

OSCAR,

Foli fifteen hands high, imported by me in 1804, after having been him the year before, and justified myself as to his reputation, is now in fine health, full of vigor and muscular strength, and will be let to mares, the ensuing season, at my stables in Charles City county, Sandy Point, at Six Guineas the season, which may be discharged by the payment of Five Guineas, on or before the tenth day of August next; Three Guineas the leap, and Ten to insure a foal; a Dollar to the groom—Pastures as extensive as any in the state and inferior to none for fine natural grass, especially the white clover, which abounds to a wonderful degree in the months of April, May and June, as also after harvest, that success in crab and other grass, which so plentifully takes place here, will be afforded, with entertainment for servants, free from charge. No liability for involuntary escapes, nor will I be responsible for any injuries or accidents which may not be the result of wanton neglect or abuse, as I here give my word to the public, that no pain nor affliction shall be wanting on my parts, to render satisfaction without respect to persons, to every gentleman who thinks fit to feed mares for the season. This very extraordinary stallion colt me when landed in this state, greatly upwards of one thousand pounds, and without meaning to detract from the merits of any other, I can safely venture to say, is the most perfect horse in Virginia; for the most critical observer has not yet been able to discover a single defect or blemish in him, either as to activity, strength, or beauty. Nothing can excel him in the neck, ear and eye. So bold, gay, and full of fire is he, that he fascinates in spite of prejudice, every beholder, that instant he is brought into view.

I would endeavor to give a full description of him, for the satisfaction of those gentlemen who cannot conveniently visit me, but in the attempt I might do him injustice, and therefore I invite the most scrupulous examination of him, even by those who think themselves competent judges in this respect, and I do not fear the result. In short, it will not be deemed extravagant to say, he is, of his kind, the best effort of nature.

OSCAR is a dark brown, was got by Saltram, he beat horse in his day (who was the first of Whiskey and many good races)—his dam by Highflyer, grandam by Herod, great grandam (Miss Middleton) by Regulus, great great grandam (Camilla) by a son of Bay Bolton, Bartlett's Childers, Honeywood's Arabian, dam of the two True Blues.

In 1798, at New Market, at 3 years old he won a Handicap (weightages of 15 guineas each, two year old colts, beating Lord Clermont's b c by Dragoon, Mr. Howarth's b c Morda, Mr. Adams' b c Cyphus, Mr. Watson's f Duplicitly; two to one on Oscar.

At Lambourn he was 2d best, 4 mile heat, against Lord Oak and others, running 3 heats.

In 1799 he won the Oaks Races of 50 ga. each, half ditch in (20 subscribers) beating Lord Grosvenor's ch f Lady Bull, Mr. Heathcote's b c Warton, Sir F. Standish's b c Stamford, Mr. Darand's Play or Pay, Mr. Cookson's b h Ambrosio, Lord Clermont's b h Amator, Lord G. Cavendish's b h Jupiter. The judges could only place the first five.

24 May, the same year, he won at Brackett Hall, 50l. for all ages, beats about one mile and a quarter, beating Sir Charles Bagbury's Conbatant, 4 years old, Mr. Bowie's Sadler, 5 years old.

In Oct. he won the Oaks Races of 50 ga. each, 18 subscribers) beating Mr. Thacker's b c Chippendale, Mr. Williamson's b c by Buzzard, out of Rachel, Lord Clermont's Amator, Lord Grosvenor's ch f Lady Bull, Sir C. Bagbury's Wrangler, Sir F. Poole's b f by Dragon, Mr. Howard's Spectator, Mr. Ludbrooke's Hamburg. The judge could only place the first three.

In 1800, at New Market, April 14th, he won the Craven stakes, of 10 ga. each, across the flat, at 4 years old, carrying 8 st 9 lb. for all ages, beating the duke of Grafton's b c First Fruits, Lord Clermont's b c by Meteor, Mr. Cookson's b h Diamond, Mr. Coventry's b c Voltaire, Mr. O'Kelly's Grey Pilot, Mr. Durand's Ramphoedra, late Princess Mr. Dalwood's Play or Pay & Sir F. Standish's b c by Sir Peter, out of Storge. The judge could only place the first five. Even betting, Oscar against the field.

In the same month and place, he won a subscription plate of 50l. beating Mr. R. Heathcote's ch f Georgiana Mr. Hallett's Quiz, Mr. O'Kelly's Antrim, Lord Clermont's ch c Vindicator, Mr. Golding's b c by Balloon, Mr. Travis's Balarina, Mr. Perrier's Pizarro, and Lord Grosvenor's ch c by Buzzard. The judge could only place the first three, 7 to 4 on Oscar.

He was second best for the King's plate of 100 ga. for 4 years old, carrying 11 st. running against Sir F. Poole's Worthy, by Portos, and Sir F. Standish's b h Stamford, 5 years old.

In Oct. New Market, he received forfeit of Mr. Heathcote's Warton, for 500 ga. zeros the flat, half forfeit. For these remarkable instances of speed and bottom, in so young a horse, I refer the reader to the Racing Calendar for 1798, '99 and '00.

St. PAUL,

A beautiful sorrel horse, 15 hands 3 inches high, remarkable for his elegance, beauty, strength and fine bones; will stand the ensuing season, at my plantation on James river, generally known by the name of Maiden's Adventure, 2 1/2 miles above Fine Creek mill, and 4 miles below Michael's ferry, in Powhatan county, to cover mares at twenty-five dollars the season, which will commence the first of March, and expire the first of August—Extraordinary good and extensive pasturage gratis, but no liability for accidents or escapes. Gentlemen wishing their mares fed, may be furnished with corn at the market price, for which cash must be sent with the mares—also, notes of hand for the due payment of the money for the season.

N. B. Twenty dollars, paid on or before the third Wednesday in November (being Powhatan court day) will be received as full compensation of the above, with half a dol. to the groom.

This beautiful horse, St. Paul, was raised by the Prince of Wales, and got by his horse Saltram, who was got by Eclipse that covered at 200 guineas the season—his dam Virago by Snap—his grandam by Regulus, out of a sister to Black and all Black, and was thought to be the best runner of his time—he won several large stakes, among which was the Derby, 1783, beating Duncannon, Volunteer, Phenomenon, Gonzales, and several others—he was the sire of Whiskey, who at 3 years old won 4650 guineas, also of Whip, Royalist, Peeping Tom, General, Goiner, Sylph, Septim, Caroline, Tiffany, Laurestina, St. David, Spiritually, Queen of Sheba, Spankaway, Rose, Sweeper, Cyrris, Coal Merchant, Pickpocket, O'case, Ambrosio, Pretty Patty, and several others of the first rate runners. St. Paul's dam Purity was got by Matcham, who covered for several of the first rate runners of his time—her dam the Old Squire mare, of as great fame perhaps, as a good breeder, as any mare in the kingdom—she was the dam of Virgin Dido, Conundrum, Rantles, Enigma, Miss Timms, Pumpkin, Maiden (who was dam of Walnut) Le Sang, Rascals, Purity, and several others. Purity was the dam of Rockingham, Archibald, Fitzwilliam, St. Paul and several others—Several certificates of St. Paul as a good and sure foot getter may be seen at his stand.
